Sotezza II

Under-mounted conservatory awnings for cosy flair.

Enjoy relaxing times under your patio roof – this is the promise that is kept by your Sottezza II. The decorative inside shadowing is elegant, sleek and understated – and suitable for almost every patio roof. The Sottezza II quite simply invites you to relax. And that's what you'll be able to do. That's because this awning reduces the development of heat under the glass and provides for feel-good temperatures – also in the summer. In the cooler seasons, the warming solar rays are used to heat up your patio area. At the same time, the Sottezza II also provides effective glare protection.

The image shows a high-quality outdoor living space. A white pergola with horizontal slats covers a patio area. In the foreground, there is a light-colored sofa and a round wooden coffee table with two glasses. The background features a stunning view of a deep blue sea, a rocky coastline with greenery, and a range of mountains under a clear blue sky. A small tree is visible on the right side of the frame.
